

Divorce Lawyer Chilliwack

Divorce Lawyer Chilliwack - It is extremely simple to get overwhelmed when handling divorce or separation. The stress and emotional burden caused by dealing with the potential child/spousal support and access as well as the division of property makes it a very traumatic event. As the choices made during this particular time may affect the rest of your life, it is wise to have an impartial party present who can ensure you are provided as much data as possible about the consequences of your decisions.

There are various ways so as to resolve family problems, including mediation, negotiation, collaborative family law and the Court process.

Here at our company, we believe that any matrimonial problems need to be resolved outside the courtroom, which saves money and may be the best method for you. A written, fair agreement can be reached by our experienced lawyers through negotiation.

If for whatever reason you cannot avoid going to court, we can help provide you with experienced and knowledgeable representation.

In "Collaborative Family Law", both spouses are responsible for hiring a lawyer skilled in collaborative law. Each of the parties along with their lawyers first agree not to go to court and attempt to settle the issues through negotiation. Most of the work is spent with both parties and their lawyers present and negotiating between themselves.

Depending upon the requirements of the family, Registered Psychologists or Clinical Counselors could be included in the procedures. Should the case require it, we likewise encourage using a child specialist to help arrange a parenting plan as well as helping with whatever problems regarding the mental well being of the children.

When going through divorce, the collaborative family law is unique in that it allows the parties to come to a resolution themselves. We provide experts to help ensure that the separation goes as smooth as possible, as well as to assist cope with the extreme emotional feelings experienced throughout the procedure.