

Chilliwack Divorce Lawyer

Chilliwack Divorce Lawyer - Our staff and lawyers are devoted to helping you through this difficult and stressful time as family law is the most emotional involved. Our lawyers are experienced in the proceedings of family law and will provide you the information you require to make educated decisions. Our firm provides various services, ranging from drafting agreements to complicated Divorce Trials.

Whether you are debating getting divorce, getting married or adopting, our objective is to help you understand all your legal obligations and rights.

When thinking about marriage, Tax and Estate Planning, Wills, and Pre-Nuptial Marriage Agreements, we can help you explain these obligations and rights for you.

When undergoing separation or divorce, our firm provides legal advice concerning support payments, child custody, and access, to division of property, and spousal maintenance.

Family farm business arrangements, preparation of Wills, separation agreements, spousal property transfers, adoptions and child apprehension cases are all things that need a Family Law lawyer.

By consulting with experts such as psychologists, family counselors, pension evaluators, accountants, real estate appraisers and tax specialists, our lawyers can help you make educated decisions. Our goal is to offer you effective, cost-effective and quick experience.