

Chilliwack Tax Lawyer

Chilliwack Tax Lawyer - Our practice specializes in dealing with tax disputes and has significant experience in tax litigation. Companies call upon us to help them in negotiating with the tax authorities. We usually represent them before the courts on tax appeals.

Capital, income, commodity, and mining taxation or trade cases are all situations where our firm is experienced and knowledgeable. By utilizing all the resources that we have available, we guarantee that our client is fully prepared to handle information requests, audits, reassessment proposals, and voluntary disclosures. Our tax solicitors often request our tax litigators early on so as to advise our clients on the tax aspects of a transaction. Should a reassessment be unavoidable, we attempt to solve the dispute making use of administrative appeals. If this approach does not acquire positive results, we try to simplify the condition prior to starting the litigation process. Our main goal is to help our clients come to a resolution quickly and efficiently.

We have represented recent cases that comprised interpretative questions, tax avoidance and transfer pricing. These particular questions include experimental development and scientific research expenses, foreign exchange, taxable benefits, and commodity and payroll taxes.

Our client base is formed by both domestic and foreign companies. These comprise some well known public institutions and partnerships, tax-exempt corporations, as well as various corporations in the areas of telecommunications, financials, pharmaceuticals, and utilities. We guarantee that a close working relationship is maintained on both a global and domestic level together with accountants, chief financial officers, tax executives and tax advisors.
