

Law Offices in Chilliwack

Law Offices in Chilliwack - Regulating activities in the broadcasting and telecommunication industries are the Entertainment, Media & Sports laws. We represent at our firm, our client's interests before tribunals and commissions, by utilizing a multidisciplinary method which is demanded by this complicated field of law.

Included in our client base are lots of entertainers, professional athletes and artists. We offer services connected to contract negotiation, tax planning, intellectual property protection and dispute settlement.

To carry out and structure financing arrangements, we work closely together with professionals within our Corporate/Commercial, Corporate Finance, Tax, technology & Communications teams. We have clients which consist of the producers of motion pictures, theatrical works and television programs. We also advise and act for organizations which are in the process of acquiring or expanding telecommunication networks and cable systems.