

Estate Lawyers Chilliwack

Estate Lawyers Chilliwack - When someone you love passes away or becomes incapacitated estate litigation immediately follows. Emotions, interpersonal and family disagreements arise, which in turn makes the responsibility of making important choices practically intolerable. Our company has a variety of services that can guarantee that all the estate issues are handled effectively and quickly.

We offer help to personal representatives, beneficiaries and executors regarding challenges to trusts, power of attorney and wills. This consists of guardianship and trusteeship disputes, will interpretation and undue influence, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Also, charitable institutions, trustees and trusts may rely on our company for valuable recommendations.

Among the most stressful and difficult situations arises when estates or a dependent adult are included. We guarantee that our clients receive effective and straightforward recommendation laced with understanding and sensitivity. Our resolutions are achieved by means of arbitration, litigation, or mediation.