

Chilliwack Divorce Lawyers

Chilliwack Divorce Lawyers - As hard as it is to acknowledge, every so often a marriage simply doesn't work out. It is imperative that you choose a law firm with the right skill to be able to assist you through the stressful, emotional experience of divorce.

Our firm is well-equipped in all aspects of family law to represent you in both Provincial and Supreme courts.

Our firm has the knowledge and experience to make sure you know all your rights and obligations, along with the different approaches to resolving the disputes that take place in the proceedings. Your lawyer would give you all the data you require in order to make educated decisions.

Aspects of family law which our company specializes in are: prenuptial and separation agreements, spousal/child support, custody/access of children, division of personal and business assets, divorce and separations and family law mediation.

Our company offers quality and efficient service all over the Lower Mainland and British Columbia. Our firm practices exclusively in family law.