

Chilliwack Law Firm

Chilliwack Law Firm - Regulatory law impacts every type of local, provincial, and federal governmental activity with profound implications for businesses and individuals. Our firm's regulatory law practitioners have various experience across a lot of regulated sectors and keep up to date with the ever-evolving procedural and substantive laws, rules, regulations, and policies which could have an effect on our clients' activities.

Our lawyers are immersed in the regulatory and public policy matters relevant to major sectors. They have the organizational skills and advocacy needed to guarantee successful resolution of regulatory concerns at all levels of government.

Our clients are well represented in all aspects of regulatory matters. Our practitioners service individuals and businesses, applicants and intervenes before all levels of regulatory authorities.

The services we provide consist of: advising and representation to be able to attain successful regulatory applications, risk management, compliance, and governance in each and every regulated sector. Our teams of lawyers are versed in all types of applicable rule, bylaw, policy, and procedural provisions pertinent to a regulatory application.

To be able to provide all-inclusive and seamless recommendation across international jurisdictions, we have close working relationships together with international legal professions. We do this to ensure that the activities of our clientele are in the compliance with foreign regulatory enactments. Our Regulatory Group readies land-use applications, prepares tariff and rate applications, represents clients in a broad range of regulatory approval proceedings, and works together with our litigators on appeals and judicial review applications.