

Best Divorce Lawyer in Chilliwack

Best Divorce Lawyer in Chilliwack - When planning our estate there are some things that you must take into consideration beyond just a Last Will and Testament. Deferring and reducing taxes, choosing the beneficiary of your life insurance benefits, pension plans, homes, practices and businesses are all things which you have to take into consideration. Our office is skilled in different matters regarding wills and estates and is capable of providing efficient and valuable estate planning recommendation.

Preparing for illness is a difficult issue which is included in nearly all comprehensive estate plans. Using recommendation from our veteran lawyers, our clients can prepare their Dependent Adult Application, Enduring Power of Attorney and Personal Directive.

Among the aspects in which we are experienced comprise charitable giving as well as the succession of family businesses. Several of our lawyers regularly attend lectures and publish articles associated to estate planning.

We likewise specialize in probate and estate litigation in the fields of challenging Wills, Dependents Relief Act Applications, Interstate Succession Act Issues, matrimonial property issues, adult interdependent relationships and same sex relationships.