

Chilliwack Real Estate Lawyer

Chilliwack Real Estate Lawyer - Our firm has vast knowledge dealing with all aspects of commercial real estate. Our legal experts have the expertise and knowledge to guide our clients all through various situations. We have built some long term relations along with our clients, that consist of lending institutions, life insurance companies, crown corporations, various levels of government, land developers, contractors, asset managers, property managers, landlords and tenants.

Various managers of assets and portfolios and legal departments of large businesses employ our services and estate team members to advise and assist them on the development, administration and acquisition of cross-country real estate portfolios. Interaction between professionals from various disciplines and our real estate experts is common to be able to ensure that our clients be given quality service. Some of the other disciplines comprise merger and acquisition transactions, secured lending transactions, large project and infrastructure financing transactions, and public-private partnerships.

We can quickly and efficiently come to a reasonable solution to all of your legal real estate requirements, due to the full service nature of our practice, in addition to the expertise and experience of the professionals who work for us.
