

Chilliwack Family Lawyer

Chilliwack Family Lawyer - Several issues arise when you and your spouse decide to end your marriage or common-law relationship. It is important that you have sound legal counsel and know the impact that your decisions would have on you and on your family's future. Our office offers professional recommendation and counsel on such matters as custody, access, property and pension division, business property and debt division. Our company is dedicated to providing you with the necessary legal assistance you require to navigate through the family law procedure fast and efficiently.

Which parent will your child live? When will the kid or kids see the parent without custodial rights? Who is in charge of financially support? Who will keep the matrimonial home? Who will be accountable for paying whatever debts incurred during the marriage? Moreover, if you ran a family business, how will the business assets be divided?

Our company would assist you in the preparation of a Separation Agreement that will provide clear and comprehensive answers to these questions. A formal written agreement is recommended so that you can be free to focus on your new life. This Separation Agreement, once finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This agreement could be included into the final Divorce Order. An uncontested divorce takes place if you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement about all major issues. An uncontested divorce could proceed fast through a three-part application procedure. Our duty is to help you in the preparation of all required documents and to file them quickly so that you can move on with your life.

Contested divorces result when you and your spouse cannot agree on the issues noted above. Court procedures must handle those matters through settlement conferences, informal negotiations between parties and/or trials. Our lawyers will assist you throughout all phases of the court process. Our objective is to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your family.

When a common-law relationship requires a different procedure regarding custody, support, property division and pension division problems. We can also assist you with the termination of a common-law relationship associated problems.
