

Lawyer Referral Service Chilliwack

Lawyer Referral Service Chilliwack - People with a high-net worth and their families need some type of wealth management and estate planning. We ensure that our clients and their assets are protected during their lifetime and after death. Moreover, we make sure that these assets are correctly distributed in an orderly and tax efficient method to their descendants.

Our estates and wealth management group will help with all aspects of executorship, administration, taxes, trusts and estates and associated dispute solutions. Our vast experience includes the areas involving the trusts, the preparation of wills and power of attorneys. We ensure that, in case of death, double taxation and various unfavorable tax results.

One more aspect which we specialize in is succession planning for both private and family-owned companies. Our clients depend upon us for a variety of services, including the separation of business assets from investment assets, estate freezes, variable share structure, and exit strategies.
