

Chilliwack Business Law

Chilliwack Business Law - Our Business Law team helps companies of all sizes and types in achieving their objectives. We believe in and provide value-based and client-centred legal services. With our trademark combination of conventional and innovative methods to business law, we assist a lot of this nation's most successful and recognized commercial enterprises, and help with development varying in size from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

We have specialists and engineers across North America and around the globe that work together with our firm's lawyers as an integrated group. Our legal advice has helped a lot of major resource-based developments achieve their objectives, from agribusiness to pulp and paper, from mining projects to oil and gas developments. We design creative partnerships and joint ventures among companies, co-operatives, governments, venture capitalists, financial institutions and merchant bankers.

We give sound business advice to clients concerning mergers, acquisitions and divestitures throughout the whole transaction cycle, consisting of legal due diligence, structuring, and negotiating offers to purchase, letters of intent and agreements of sale and purchase.

In order to help serve our clients in the areas of tax planning and the governance and structuring of different entities, our company has a strong practice in commercial law. We work on a lot of matters consisting of negotiated project financing, engineering and construction agreements, and worldwide commodity marketing agreements for business enterprises.

We help grassroots entrepreneurship through our services to medium sized and small businesses. We assist in the development of effective business and management structures. We could help entrepreneurs' access capital and establish positive relationships along with clients and suppliers. Our lawyers have extensive experience with cross-border transactions and could help small businesses to become successful exporters.
