

Copyright Lawyer Chilliwack

Copyright Lawyer Chilliwack - Today's complicated web of worldwide regulations and laws governing competitive conduct can leave companies facing various corporate compliance issues if sufficient systems to be able to reduce risks are not in place. Consequences can range from hefty fines for alleged price fixing, to jail sentences for executives whose companies have violated antitrust laws. Lawsuits by private people, including class action lawsuits, can lead to damage or settlements awards totaling millions of dollars. Our office offers business clients effective representation and practical recommendation to help them establish corporate compliance systems to maximize their ability to compete legally and efficiently. Our competition/antitrust lawyers offer expert counsel concerning complicated problems which can negatively impact the operations and ability to survive of a company.

Our Competition/Antitrust lawyers work in all areas of advertising, marketing and competition/antitrust law. Our lawyers are frequently called upon to write and speak about competition law topics for academic, legal and business audiences. We have experience in price fixing investigations, mergers, product pricing, packaging, distribution, advertising and labeling problems. Our litigators have acted for clients before the courts, the Canadian International Trade Tribunal and the Competition Tribunal. Our lawyers draw upon different members all over our office for expertise in trade remedies, intellectual property, commercial and franchising problems associated with product distribution. We likewise assist in the defence of quasi-criminal and criminal allegations.