

Business Lawyer Chilliwack

Business Lawyer Chilliwack - Among our client comprise financial institutions, financing and leasing companies, and other non-bank lenders. We often help them to structure and document an assortment of loan transactions. Loan transactions might comprise lines of credit, term loans, revolving credit facilities, asset-based loans, lease financings, subordinated financings, motion picture financings, and real estate development financings.

Our business clients also rely on us to assist them in arranging, negotiating, and obtaining credit facilities.

Our lawyers are very familiar with public sector financing and with assistance programs and structures. They have vast knowledge with industrial revenue bond issuances, industrial development transactions, local and state development agency programs and financings.

Our lawyers help lenders and borrowers with work-outs and loan restructurings.
