

Divorce Lawyer in Chilliwack

Divorce Lawyer in Chilliwack - Our lawyers have the necessary knowledge in a wide assortment of technology matters as we often advise the users and developers in both the public and private sectors. We have knowledge in structuring, drafting, implementing and negotiating information technology agreements in addition to providing suggestion in the areas of corporate law, intellectual property law, and several related matters. Our client base is diverse, ranging from small, entrepreneurial start-ups to sectors in the government.

To be able to offer our clients with the best possible assistance, our team is full integrated with several experts of our office in an array of different practice areas. This allows us to offer specialized legal advice in numerous fields that is relevant to our technology clients.

Our legal experts are experienced and knowledgeable with specialized industry expertise.