

Chilliwack Accident Lawyer

Chilliwack Accident Lawyer - Our firm of Intellectual Property lawyers understand how much importance and value you place on intellectual property. We offer various legal assistance in order to assist you license and protect your intellectual property to trademarks, trade secrets, copyright and industrial designs. Our clients are those included within the use, creation, licensing, protection and acquisition of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have various years of knowledge securing patent, trademark, industrial design and copyright registrations globally and domestically. We are skilled at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

Our Patent services comprise: preparation, filing and prosecution of patent applications; prior art searching; licensing and assignments; enforcement.

We likewise provide services and advice for Trademarks including: opinions and searching relating to registration of design, word, certification or public official marks and distinguishing guises; filing and preparation of applications for registration; licensing, assignment and franchising agreements; opposition procedures before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; infringement and passing-off opinions; renewals and expungement (removal) applications; trademark defense and enforcement.

For Copyrights, we provide searching; licensing of literary (including software), dramatic and musical works; prosecution, preparation and filing of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and sale of copyright and copyright protected works; copyright defense and enforcement.

We can assist your company with the protection of Trade Secrets to be able to keep your competitive advantage. We can craft agreements and programs to protect confidential data.

For Industrial Designs we provide searching and availability opinions; licensing and assignment; preparation, filing and prosecution of applications for registration.

We have lots of clients from different trades including agriculture, entertainment, hotels, manufacturing, technology and travel.