

Chilliwack Law Firms

Chilliwack Law Firms - Our Administrative Law Group Our assists companies, not-for-profit organizations, governments, individuals with different problems associated to regulatory agencies and tribunals. Our members act for clients before tribunals and commissions about such problems as privacy and information, gaming and liquor, water quality safety, insurance and human rights.

Our company's lawyers are knowledgeable at handling inquiry boards and other administrative tribunals that exist for workplace health and safety and environmental law. We offer structure compliance-based transaction strategies and offer initial due diligence. We have many years of experience acting for clients before administrative law decision-makers. Our lawyers even bring to the table valuable adjudicative knowledge through assisting as mediators and arbitrators.