

Trustees in Bankruptcy Chilliwack

Trustees in Bankruptcy Chilliwack - Lenders, receivers, trustees, businesses, directors and shareholders come to our firm to be able to seek recommendation concerning an assortment of creditor/debtor issues. Our lawyers help guide customers during formal/informal insolvency or debt restructuring procedures. Though our lawyers are really experienced and knowledgeable inside the courtroom, they are also skilled of finding inexpensive solutions outside of it. We provide effective and realistic advice concerning reformation under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or likewise referred to as the Companies Creditors' Arrangement Act, discussing forbearance agreements or workout plans, or collecting indebtedness. Regardless of your situation, our lawyers are capable of looking for a practical solution for you or your company.