

Chilliwack Car Accident Lawyers

Chilliwack Car Accident Lawyers - We have one of the largest and most experienced class action defense groups within the country. We have experienced in varied law fields consisting of employment, competition, environment issues, product liability, pension, professional liability, and securities.

Our company is completely capable of defending our clients in trial or coming to a settlement early in the proceedings by means of compromise. We use a method which is efficient and cost effective. Because our counsel includes lawyers from multiple jurisdictions, we are able to provide our clients helpful, experienced suggestion and a national approach with regards to defending multi-provincial class actions. With regards to dealing with cross-border litigation, we even utilize our "one team" approach. We have worked closely along with external and internal U.S. defense counsel to be able to create a global defense plan.

Our multidisciplinary method enables us to draw upon the knowledge offered by members of our banking, competition, corporate and commercial, securities, intellectual property and labor and employment teams to guarantee that all our clients requirements are best represented.
