

Patent Agent Chilliwack

Patent Agent Chilliwack - Our Intellectual Property lawyers have many years of knowledge helping clients who are developing innovative products, services, content and brands. We act for and advise clients within the area of technology and intellectual property law, focusing on unfair competition and trademarks. We even deal with copyrights, internet law, sports, art and entertainment law, and connected litigation. We understand the investment you have in your intellectual property, and we offer the knowledge required so as to realize maximum returns on your investment.

Trademarks are of critical value, specifically in protecting Internet domain names. Trademarks can be an effective method of dealing with "cyber squatters" who try to steal your Internet customers. Our attorneys assist entrepreneurs in the selection of business marks and names which can be registered successfully and which will not infringe the rights of others. We also assist established companies protect their present brands.

Our lawyers help clients with the copyright registration process. We deal with situations of unlawful copying, plagiarism, and other unfair uses of client's protected expression. Our firm knows that copyrights are vital to the success of clients in the art, publishing, music and recording businesses, and together with manuals, software, photographs, business plans, advertising copies, catalogs, jingles and designs.

When required, our lawyers have had a great deal of success litigating domain name, unfair competition, trademark, and copyright infringement disputes.

Our lawyers can help with the agreements for licensing intellectual property and in the creation of intellectual property. Our services comprise assistance in negotiating and structuring licenses, assignments, and different transactions in which intellectual property can be used and exploited commercially.